FROM OUR PASTOR

NEW SUNDAY NIGHT STUDY STARTS IN AUGUST “The Heart of God’s Story”

This six session series will help us identify the heart of Scripture around three central themes: the emphasis on God’s presence, the places God creates for His people to walk with and know Him, and the extension of God’s grace in the world.

As we work our way through this study, we will unpack these central, life-orienting topics in a way that has the potential to change us forever.

Join us in the fellowship hall beginning August 6 at 5:30 p.m. for this exciting new Sunday night study series. A light supper will be served as you arrive.

LISTEN ONLINE

I know that summer is a time when families are vacationing and you may have missed a message or two in the spring and summer sermon series. If you would like to catch up on any of the messages in the spring and summer series “Spirit-filled Families” or “Depend,” log on to www.dawsonstreetbaptist.org and click “Listen Now” or “Archives” and you will be able to find any of the messages you missed.

Serving a Soon-returning Savior,
Brother Lee

CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY

Christian sympathy is extended to Curt Eason and family on the loss of his grandfather, Curtis Eason.

NEW PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

Colorcraft Studios based out of Bryant AL will begin taking family pictures on Saturday, September 9, 2017. All church members who have pictures taken will receive a free 8 x 10 or 10 x 13 photo as well as a directory. Sign-up starts Sunday, August 6. When 50 families are scheduled for that Saturday, September 9, then there will be a second day added for pictures to be taken on Friday, September 8. Colorcraft will schedule all appointments. If all of us will try to leave those days open, the directory can include many new members as well as update those previous photos. We will ensure that every member that wants to participate will have an opportunity. We will give more information soon. We have needed a new directory for a long time! Let's get excited and involved!

Thank you, Linda Vaupel
